

Public Health Internship Quick Look

Academic Year 2025 Internship Class Survey (N=4)

Key Insights

-  100% of interns rated their overall internship experience 5 stars
-  100% of interns found their internship experience to be valuable
-  100% of interns would recommend this internship to a Public Health Senior

“I found this internship incredibly valuable and connected me to a lot of people with different career interests and helped me explore skills in a meaningful way.” - Student Intern

3 out of 4 interns strongly agreed that the internship:

- ☒ Expanded their knowledge in the field of Public Health
- ☒ Helped them develop skills that they will use in their professional career
- ☒ Helped them develop skills that they will use in their personal life

75%

of interns reported their preceptor encouraged them to try new things

“The internship is highly structured to fit with the course expectations and there is so much collaboration that happens with other interns, preceptors, and other public health professionals that contribute to the sense of community and belonging in the workplace. We are given so much opportunity to do fun, exciting, and impactful things that make this experience fulfilling and worthwhile. It has been an opportunity that is both so forgiving and challenging, both of which have helped me grow.” - Student Intern

Interns Are Much More Confident in the Following After Their Internship Experience

100%

Gained confidence in communicating effectively with people from a variety of background and experiences

100%

Gained confidence in aligning their choices and goals with their core values

“The community at HPPS has been invaluable to my learning and growth as a public health practitioner and even as just an individual.” - Student Intern

91% of interns reporting increased confidence across core skill areas which reflects the program’s effectiveness in enhancing experiential learning and equipping students with practical skills for future personal and professional success.